

Wednesday, October 4, 2006

For more information, contact:

Catherine Hoelscher

Baby Watch Early Intervention Program

584-8258 or 414-7531

News Advisory

Baby Watch Early Intervention Celebrates with a Play Date! 20 Years of Making a Difference

- What: Children and families currently receiving services and those who have successfully left Baby Watch Early Intervention will come together to celebrate 20 years of achievements at a special "Play Date." The Utah Parent Network is sponsoring a unique statewide reunion of children and parents past and present to mark the occasion with family success stories, pumpkin painting and refreshments.
- Why: Baby Watch Early Intervention provides early identification and developmental services for families of infants and toddlers, ages birth to three with disabilities or developmental delays.
- Who: Hundreds of families with current and graduate Baby Watch Early Intervention children have been invited as well as early intervention providers.
- When: "Play Date," October 5, 2006 at 2:00 p.m.
- Where: Main Public Library, 210 East 400 South
Salt Lake City, 4th floor conference room

Earlier that afternoon, at 1:00 p.m., Utah Governor Jon Huntsman Jr. will also sign a declaration designating October, Baby Watch Early Intervention Awareness Month.

www.UtahBabyWatch.org

###